HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, June 20th, 1822.

THE STATE LOTTERY.—The Commissioners appointed by the Governor and Council have nearly completed the signing of the tickets in this brilliant little scheme. They will be ready for sale in the course of 8 or 10 days—the share tickets will also be prepared about the same time. The Scheme will be found on the 4th page of this day's Register. Next week we propose to point out its advantages and the inducements it offers, for the patronage of adventurers; in the mean time our friends and the public will examine its merits themselves.

No 19,299, was the first drawn yesterday afternoon in the Washington Monument Lottery. The ticket is one amongst the few which the managers have remaining unsold, consequently the premium of One Thousand Dollars to which it is entitled, falls to the scheme, in aid of the funds for completing the embellishments of the stately column erected to the memory of the illustrious Patriot and Chief, whose name it bears.

The important prizes of the Monument Lottery still continuing undrawn, has caused a very considerable gain of the wheels, during the last two drawings. The crisis of the scheme is rapidly approaching, and we have to remind our distant customers to complete their purchases without delay to avoid disappointment, as the tickets are becoming scarce, and will consequently be much advanced in price. All orders either for whole tickets or shares, will meet our accustomed prompt attention, if addressed to J. I. COHEN, Jr. Sec'y to the Managers, BALTIMORE.

A premium of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS will be awarded to the first drawn number in the Monument Lottery on the twenty-second drawing. Eighteen have already taken place. Our friends therefore in the more remote parts of the Union, who may wish to obtain chances for this handsome prize, will see the necessity for sending on their orders as soon as possible.

Canal Navigation.—The Norfolk Herald states that the schooner Roanoke has recently made three trips through the Dismal Swamp Canal from the head waters of the Roanoke, to those of James River and the Appomattox. On the last trip, she left the Roanoke on the 15th of May with 250 barrels of fish, arrived at the north outfall on the 20th, and at Petersburg the 23d of May; left there the 24th, and arrived at the north outfall the 27th of May; the master expected to arrive at the Roanoke on the 30th of May.

We have been informed (says the Democratic Press) that the Grand Lodges of Pennsylvania and New-York have unanimously rejected the proposition made at Washington to establish a General Grand Lodge throughout the United States. The meeting in New-York is represented to have been highly respectable and numerous. The Vice President of the United States presided, and there were upwards of 800 votes present at their deliberations.

THE DUEL.—Savannah June 9th.

Col. Cumming and Mr. M'Duffie—The long expected duel between these gentlemen took place on Saturday last, at Tucka-see-king, on the Carolina shore.

Mr. M'Duffie received his antagonist's ball in the side, which lodged near the back bone, and when the intelligence came away he was in a delirious state.—Col. Cumming has escaped uninjured.—Thus has terminated an affair which has for two months past occupied a considerable portion of public attention throughout the Union, and which from the high standing of the individuals has excited intense interest. All we believe have felt that which ever might escape from the contest, the public, in the deprivation of the talents of either would be a serious loser.

POSTSCRIPT.

CHARLESTON June 12.

Mr. M'Duffie out of Danger.

We have been obligingly favoured with the following extract of a letter received this day from the Hon. George M'Duffie, which augurs the most favourable hopes of his final recovery.

"SISTER'S FERRY, 8th June.

"The contest is over—I am wounded, but not dangerously—but four hours have elapsed and I feel quite comfortable. The bullet entered obliquely into the back, just below the short ribs. Both Surgeons agree that there is no danger—and my own feelings indicate the same. We shall start this evening—and move slowly homewards."

The Savannah Georgian says, that Mr. Henry Clay is spoken of as United States Ambassador to Mexico, and Mr. Poinsett to Chili, to Buenos Ayres or Peru.

PIRACY.—The following atrocious and brutal acts of piracy, exceed any thing we have yet met with:

The schooner Elizabeth, Springer, from Mobile, arrived at Boston last Friday, in 35 days passage. Spoke, 21st ult. lat. 29 30, long. 85½, brig Aurilla, Howland, of New-York, from Baltimore for New Orleans, the captain of which communicated the following:—On the 16th May about 11 o'clock A. M. the Aurilla was fired upon by two piratical schooners armed with one 9 pounder, brass piece, two sixes, one pivot gun each, and manned with about 40 to 50 men each; off Key Sal, hove to, and was boarded. The passengers and crew were cruelly treated, beat with swords and pistols, and one of the passengers was hung up to the yard arm, and then dropped into the water apparently lifeless. The vessel was plundered of almost every thing. The passengers were robbed of all their clothing, watches, breast pins, &c. except what apparel they had on when captured. The women on board were brutally ravished, and the most shocking excesses committed on their bodies. After committing the most wasteful and indiscriminate plunder, and inflicting upon the crew and passengers acts of the most barbarous enormity, and shameful indecencies, they ordered the captain to cut the cables and be off about 10 o'clock the next morning. Brigs Hiram, of Newport, captain Weeks; Fair Trader, of Boston, and Busy, of R. I. were taken at the same time. The Aurilla was robbed of all her papers, as well those which belonged to the brig as those of the captain and passengers. Capt. H. stated, that on the 17th he fell in with the United States schooner Shark, and received a lieutenant on board, (to proceed in the vessel to New Orleans, captain H. apprehending difficulty on his arrival having no papers.) She shaped her course for Key Sal, to look after the pirates.

Latest Foreign News.

The ship Panthea, one of the new line of packets, has arrived at New York from Liverpool in thirty-five days, and brings dates to the 8th of May, at which time the probability of a war between Russia and Turkey seemed to lessen. The accounts are certainly more pacific than those heretofore received, yet nothing can be taken as of a decisive nature. From the extracts respecting Ireland, we learn that the people of that unhappy country are in the most deplorable state. Subscriptions are going on for their immediate relief. We are afraid, however, that something more solid than temporary aid will be necessary to render the country tranquil and happy.

Mr. Canning's bill for the admission of Catholic Peers to sit and vote in the House of Lords, was carried by a majority of 5, out of an uncommonly full house; the number being for the motion 249 against it 244. It was thought however, that the measure would be ultimately lost in the House of Lords.

A bloodless duel took place on the 2d of May at the Kensington Gardens, between the Dukes of Buckingham and Bedford. Buckingham fired, but his shot did not take effect. The Duke of Bedford discharged his pistol in the air, and a reconciliation, on the spot, immediately took place.

Miscellaneous Paragraphs.

Three youths convicted of wantonly assaulting passengers with stones, &c. have been sentenced in the Baltimore City Court to undergo a solitary confinement in the jail for thirty days; to be kept on bread and water, fined five dollars each, and to stand committed until the fine and costs were paid.

Imprisonment for Debt.—It was decided at the last Circuit Court of Vermont, that an act of the Legislature, authorising the liberation of a debtor from prison, and suspending for a term of years all proceedings against the body and property of debtors, is contrary to the restriction in section ten of the first article of the constitution of the United States, as impairing the obligation of a contract, and therefore invalid.

During the late session of the legislature of Kentucky, a law was past extending the prison bounds to the limits of the state. This is certainly the next thing to abolishing entirely the system which authorises corporal restraint for indebtedness.

Gen. Cadwallader of Philad. has been appointed by the Secretary of War, President of the Board of Visitors for the examination of the corps of Cadets, at the United States Military Academy at West Point, which is now in session.

The Franklin.—Letters from Valparaiso, of the 11th of February, state, that the United States ship of the line Franklin, was daily visited by crowds of admiring people, and that the officers were on the best terms with those of the British sloop of war Blossom, and frequently dine together.

Captain Nichols, of the brig Rapid, from Havana arrived at New York, informs us, that captain Biddle, of the United States frigate Macedonian, has issued orders that a vessel will be in readiness to convoy vessels once a week, every Sunday morning.

The Cash paid at Cohen's.

Messrs. Guings and Chaffee, the fortunate owners of the TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR PRIZE, drawn in the Monument Lottery on Thursday before last, this moment presented the lucky ticket at COHEN'S OFFICE. The cash was instantly paid as usual.
